

CLOSING REMARKS:

The whole experience should take no longer than two minutes. By doing this, you will without a doubt look and perhaps feel like a fool. But for the chance to begin enjoying the abounding riches of God won't you become a two minute fool. If you truly value your life and yourself, you will.

Once you taste and see for yourself, you will realize, a fool or no fool, that God is rich and you have only begun to taste His riches. So, eat up, because His riches are abounding!
