

O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that kills the prophets and stones those sent to her! How often I wanted to gather your children together, just as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you would not! Behold, your house is left to you; and I say to you, you shall not see Me until it comes when you say, 'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!' (Luke 13:34-35).

In that day, many were unwilling to come to Jesus. How He longed to give them shelter and rest, yet they were unwilling. What about you? You may freely come to Him. Just call, Lord Jesus, I need you.

But if you are unwilling, the Lord will leave your house, your life, etc. to yourself, to fill it with whatever you will. And you shall not see this tender Savior, until you say, "Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord."
