

Jesus said: "For whoever wants to save his soul shall lose it; but whoever will lose his soul for My sake and the gospel's shall save it" (Mark 8:35).

You want to live your own life.

You want:

a good career,
a good income,
a good family,

all for your own soul.

You want this - so you seek to save it.

Jesus said: "For whoever wants to save his soul shall lose it; but whoever will lose his soul for My sake and the gospel's shall save it" (Mark 8:35).

You want to live your own life.

You want:

a good career,
a good income,
a good family,

all for your own soul.

You want this - so you seek to save it.

You may close your eyes and tell yourself, "God doesn't exist," so you can feel justified living your own life for your own soul.

You may live a good moral life and feel that this allows you to live your own life for your own self.

You may even be a good, religious, moral person, and tell yourself that because of this God is pleased with you as you live your own life for yourself.

But the word of the Lord is clear: If you try to save your soul, you shall lose it, BUT, if you lose it for My (Jesus') sake and the gospel's, you will save it.

You may close your eyes and tell yourself, "God doesn't exist," so you can feel justified living your own life for your own soul.

You may live a good moral life and feel that this allows you to live your own life for your own self.

You may even be a good, religious, moral person, and tell yourself that because of this God is pleased with you as you live your own life for yourself.

But the word of the Lord is clear: If you try to save your soul, you shall lose it, BUT, if you lose it for My (Jesus') sake and the gospel's, you will save it.