

Jesus discusses his death

Matthew 17:22-23 (22) While they were staying in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is about to be delivered up into the hands of men, (23) and they will kill him, and the third day he will be raised up." They were exceedingly sorry.	Mark 9:30-32 (30) They went out from there, and passed through Galilee. He didn't want anyone to know it. (31) For he was teaching his disciples, and said to them, "The Son of Man is being handed over to the hands of men, and they will kill him; and when he is killed, on the third day he will rise again." (32) But they didn't understand the saying, and were afraid to ask him.	Luke 9:43b-45 (43b) But while all were marveling at all the things which Jesus did, he said to his disciples, (44) "Let these words sink into your ears, for the Son of Man will be delivered up into the hands of men." (45) But they didn't understand this saying. It was concealed from them, that they should not perceive it, and they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

Jesus pays Temple tax with a miracle

Matthew 17:24-27 (24) When they had come to Capernaum, those who collected the didrachma coins came to Peter, and said, "Doesn't your teacher pay the didrachma?" (25) He said, "Yes." When he came into the house, Jesus anticipated him, saying, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth receive toll or tribute? From their children, or from strangers?" (26) Peter said to him, "From strangers." Jesus said to him, "Therefore the children are exempt." (27) But, lest we cause them to stumble, go to the sea, cast a hook, and take up the first fish that comes up. When you have opened its mouth, you will find a stater coin. Take that, and give it to them for me and you."

Disciples argue about who is the greatest

Matthew 18:1-6 (1) In that hour the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Who then is greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven?" (2) Jesus called a little child to himself, and set him in their midst, (3) and said, "Most certainly I tell you, unless you turn, and become as little children, you will in no way enter into the Kingdom of Heaven. (4) Whoever therefore humbles himself as this little child, the same is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven. (5) Whoever receives one such little child in my name receives me, (6) but whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to stumble, it would be better for him that a huge millstone should be hung around his neck, and that he should be sunk in the depths of the sea.	Mark 9:33-37 (33) He came to Capernaum, and when he was in the house he asked them, "What were you arguing among yourselves on the way?" (34) But they were silent, for they had disputed one with another on the way about who was the greatest. (35) He sat down, and called the twelve; and he said to them, "If any man wants to be first, he shall be last of all, and servant of all." (36) He took a little child, and set him in their midst. Taking him in his arms, he said to them, (37) "Whoever receives one such little child in my name, receives me, and whoever receives me, doesn't receive me, but him who sent me."	Luke 9:46-48 (46) There arose an argument among them about which of them was the greatest. (47) Jesus, perceiving the reasoning of their hearts, took a little child, and set him by his side, (48) and said to them, "Whoever receives this little child in my name receives me. Whoever receives me receives him who sent me. For whoever is least among you all, this one will be great."
