(27) Then Peter answered, “Behold, we have left everything, and followed you. What then will we have?” (28) Jesus said to them, “Most certainly I tell you that you who have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of Man will sit on the throne of his glory, you also will sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. (29) Everyone who has left houses, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name’s sake, will receive one hundred times, and will inherit eternal life. (30) But many will be last who are first; and first who are last.	(28) Peter began to tell him, “Behold, we have left all, and have followed you.” (29) Jesus said, “Most certainly I tell you, there is no one who has left house, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or land, for my sake, and for the sake of the Good News, (30) but he will receive one hundred times more now in this time, houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, and land, with persecutions; and in the age to come eternal life. (31) But many who are first will be last; and the last first.”	(28) Peter said, “Look, we have left everything, and followed you.” (29) He said to them, “Most certainly I tell you, there is no one who has left house, or wife, or brothers, or parents, or children, for the Kingdom of God’s sake, (30) who will not receive many times more in this time, and in the world to come, eternal life.”

Matthew 20:1-16
(1) “For the Kingdom of Heaven is like a man who was the master of a household, who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. (2) When he had agreed with the laborers for a denarius a day, he sent them into his vineyard. (3) He went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace. (4) To them he said, ‘You also go into the vineyard, and whatever is right I will give you.’ So they went their way. (5) Again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and did likewise. (6) About the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle. He said to them, ‘Why do you stand here all day idle?’ (7) “They said to him, ‘Because no one has hired us.’ “He said to them, ‘You also go into the vineyard, and you will receive whatever is right.’ (8) When evening had come, the lord of the vineyard said to his manager, ‘Call the laborers and pay them their wages, beginning from the last to the first.’ (9) “When those who were hired at about the eleventh hour came, they each received a denarius. (10) When the first came, they supposed that they would receive more; and they likewise each received a denarius. (11) When they received it, they murmured against the master of the household, (12) saying, ‘These last have spent one hour, and you have made them equal to us, who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat!’ (13) “But he answered one of them, ‘Friend, I am doing you no wrong. Didn’t you agree with me for a denarius?’ (14) Take that which is yours, and go your way. It is my desire to give to this last just as much as to you. (15) Isn’t it lawful for me to do what I want to with what I own? Or is your eye evil, because I am good?’ (16) So the last will be first, and the first last. For many are called, but few are chosen.”
