

Jesus predicts the fall of Jerusalem

Matthew 24:15-28	Mark 13:14-23	Luke 21:20-24
(15) “When, therefore, you see the abomination of desolation, which was spoken of through Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place (let the reader understand), (16) then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. (17) Let him who is on the housetop not go down to take out things that are in his house. (18) Let him who is in the field not return back to get his clothes. (19) But woe to those who are with child and to nursing mothers in those days! (20) Pray that your flight will not be in the winter, nor on a Sabbath, (21) for then there will be great oppression, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, nor ever will be. (22) Unless those days had been shortened, no flesh would have been saved. But for the sake of the chosen ones, those days will be shortened. (23) “Then if any man tells you, ‘Behold, here is the Christ,’ or, ‘There,’ don’t believe it. (24) For there will arise false christs, and false prophets, and they will show great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the chosen ones. (25) “Behold, I have told you beforehand. (26) If therefore they tell you, ‘Behold, he is in the wilderness,’ don’t go out; ‘Behold, he is in the inner rooms,’ don’t believe it. (27) For as the lightning flashes from the east, and is seen even to the west, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. (28) For wherever the carcass is, there is where the vultures gather together.	(14) But when you see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not (let the reader understand), then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, (15) and let him who is on the housetop not go down, nor enter in, to take anything out of his house. (16) Let him who is in the field not return back to take his cloak. (17) But woe to those who are with child and to those who nurse babies in those days! (18) Pray that your flight won’t be in the winter. (19) For in those days there will be oppression, such as there has not been the like from the beginning of the creation which God created until now, and never will be. (20) Unless the Lord had shortened the days, no flesh would have been saved; but for the sake of the chosen ones, whom he picked out, he shortened the days. (21) Then if anyone tells you, ‘Look, here is the Christ!’ or, ‘Look, there!’ don’t believe it. (22) For there will arise false christs and false prophets, and will show signs and wonders, that they may lead astray, if possible, even the chosen ones. (23) But you watch. “Behold, I have told you all things beforehand.	(20) “But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation is at hand. (21) Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. Let those who are in the midst of her depart. Let those who are in the country not enter therein. (22) For these are days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled. (23) Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who nurse infants in those days! For there will be great distress in the land, and wrath to this people. (24) They will fall by the edge of the sword, and will be led captive into all the nations. Jerusalem will be trampled down by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.
